

ABSTRACT: A method that elevates, orients, and immobilizes decorative glass items in an arrangement using crystal containers provides displays, decoration, and ornamentation. Containers may be stacked to provide variability. An assembly cushion helps to orient containers for more variety in the displays.